

Brian Keith Hassett

October 7, 1961 - July 22, 2023

Brian Keith Hassett, 61

Brian Keith Hassett passed away at his home in Huntington, West Virginia, July 22, 2023.

Brian was born October 7, 1961, in Cabell County to Zola Lee Staley Hassett and Dan Hassett. He grew up in the Huntington, WV, and Chesapeake, Ohio, areas. He lived for several years in Crocker, MO, where he worked on Fort Leonard Wood Army Base as a food service worker.

Brian loved old Chevy “square body” pickup trucks and learned to be a fair shade-tree mechanic keeping his rigs running. He also enjoyed finding and refinishing antique furniture. But Brian was most at peace with the world while floating and fishing Missouri Ozark rivers with his dad, who called Brian his “favorite fishing partner, ever.” Smallmouth bass and cottonmouth snakes trembled when the two of them embarked on yet another float trip.

Brian was predeceased by his wife, Cindy Hassett of Huntington, his mother, Zola Hassett, of Huntington, daughter Kelli Jo Boyle, son John Bradley Adkins, granddaughter Kaylee Adkins, and grandparents Walter and Stella Mae Staley. He is survived by his father, Dan Hassett (Amy) of Crocker, MO, daughter Jody Thornburg of Chesapeake, OH, grandson Alex Adkins of Chesapeake, sister Yvonna Maynard (Elvie) of Huntington, brothers Billy Ray Boyle (Tracy) of Huntington, Dion Boyle (Vaughna) of Prichard, Randall Hassett (Tammy) of Waynesville, MO, Wayne Hassett of Senath, MO, Jake Hassett (Ria) of Pueblo, CO, Brian Nelson of Farmington, MO, and sisters

Laura Philippi of Columbia, MO, Beth Burt (Leo) of Edinburg, VA, and Barbara Nelson of Salem, MO, special niece Marissa Cooper (Robert) of Huntington, and many other relatives and friends.
