

Mr. Carmichael Lee Myers

November 1, 1950 - October 26, 2021

CARMICHAEL LEE MYERS,

70, born November 1, 1950, in Huntington WV to his loving parents, Dan Massie Myers and Betty Mae (Harvey) Myers. Carmichael transitioned from his earthly body on Tuesday, October 26, 2021 at Cabell Huntington Hospital after a extended illness of over 20 years.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his son, David Jerome Glover, Sr. and his brother, Harvey Eugene Myers.

He is graduate of Fairfield High School. After school, he went into the US Army serving tours in Vietnam with an Honorable Discharge. He worked with his father's business, Dan Myers Plumbing and years later went to work for Marshall University and retiring after 15 years due to health issues. Fishing with his buddies, Gary & Doug was one of his many hobbies; as well as watching wrestling and westerns on TV. Carmichael always enjoyed and loved spending time with his family.

He leaves to cherish his memory and legacy; his loving wife of 38 years, Mary Rebecca "Becky" (Williams) Myers; son, Jason Williams; grandchildren whom he raised, Joslyn, David II and Numarious Glover, NaKeal Hutchinson and Miajia Williams, all of Huntington, WV. Also, surviving is his brother, Marvie (Tina) Myers of Huntington; special Daughter, Michelle Hutchinson; and special cousin, Cornell "Major" Myers.

Special friends include; Debbie Brown, Jamie Lou, Maurice King, Jami Hamilton (Mike's Home Aide Nurse), Toni Arnold; along with the entire Myers

Family and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and friends.

A Home-Going service will be conducted 12:00 P.M, Monday, November 1, 2021 at Ferrell-Chambers Funeral Home, Huntington, WV with Pastor Emeritus Reginald Hill and Pastor George Scott, officiating. Military Honors will be conducted by the American Legion Post 16.
