

Whitney Halina Borders Al-Azawi

As a child she also resided in Florida, before the family returned to West Virginia. She furthered her education at Huntington Junior College, at which she received her degree. Whitney was well-known throughout the community and could be found cheering on her children at their sporting events, offering a friendly smile while being employed with local restaurants, chatting with neighbors, and traveling to enjoy different destinations. As a result of her generous spirit and helping hand she was loved by many. She was as beautiful as the flowers that she loved, and she will remain in the hearts of all who knew her. Preceded in death by her mother Therese Hatcher, "Nannie & Papaw" Getrude & Bill Kelley, loving grandmother Mary Helen Gayhart, special grandmother Emma Jean Canado, Aunt Laurel Borders Arthur, and niece Lillian Sophia Kennedy. Johnson (Autumn), and Taurean A. Johnson; nieces and nephews, Chayton Johnson, Dyquez Foster, Jada Gutierrez, Aaliyah Johnson, Carson Johnson, Myster Johnson, G'Monte Johnson, and Gianna Johnson; great-niece Nyela Jones; special sisters Latia Shyneka Garrett, LaTisha Ann Figg, Bianca Hensley; special friend Jan Petties; aunts Susan Justice and Michelle Borders; special aunts Karen Myers, Teresa Crisp, Renee Cleckley, Vickie

“ I met Whitney at "Away Camp" up in point pleasant Wv. She was very judgemental and outspoken when it comes to me and everyone else she met. Then once she got to know me or the person she was a friend for life.. i just happened to come across her passing.. may strength be with her children and family.
